

FRIDAY 25 FEBRUARY 2022

SHAREHOLDER AND CORPORATE DISPUTES

The remote VAD 2022 will be held in a novel interactive format. After the keynote speech, kick-off presentations will introduce the conference topics. This will be followed by two interactive sessions providing the participants with the opportunity to convene in smaller groups of their choice to discuss the topics raised in the kick-off presentations. The sessions will be moderated by international arbitration experts and are intended to give conference attendants the opportunity to have a lively debate with fellow arbitration practitioners.
